

When The Sun Came Up

Verse 1

As Mary stood that day, the truth to convey
Of Christ's resurrection to his men.
It was too good to be true, they had watched him die too,
Mary's words they could not comprehend.
They had to see if it was true, so Peter ran to the tomb,
That's when they saw the great stone rolled away.
After three days of sorrow, now there's hope for tomorrow,
'Cause there's nobody there in that grave.

Chorus

'Cause when the sun came up, the Son came out of the grave
And the grave's victory and death's painful sting
By Christ have been taken away
And now he lives today interceding for sinners to save
Cause' when the sun came up, the Son came out of the grave.

Verse 2

Have you stood at the grave and dealt with the pain
Of bidding one that you love goodbye
Have you had to let them go, with a grief stricken soul?
While the tears fell like raindrops from your eyes?
Well I have good news for you, it doesn't end with the tomb
A blessed hope for the Christian awaits,
For someday they shall rise and we'll meet in the skies,
All because Jesus conquered the grave.
